

The China-Russia Partnership: Implications for Europe

10 June, 2025
14:00-16:00

Speaker:

Dr. Una Aleksandra
Bērziņa-Čerenkova

Asst. prof. & Head, Rīga Stradiņš University China Studies Ctr.
Head, Asia program, Latvian Institute of International Affairs
Visiting Fellow, Hokkaido Univ. Slavic-Eurasian Research Ctr.

As Russia and China grow closer, the security dynamics of the Nordic-Baltic region and East Asia are becoming increasingly interconnected. This workshop features Dr. Una Aleksandra Bērziņa-Čerenkova—Latvia's leading strategist and a widely recognized China expert across academic, policy, think-tank, and media spheres, including NATO StratCom, FPRI, ICDS, etc. Drawing on her deep insights into China-Russia relations and their impact on European diplomacy, this session offers a timely opportunity to explore the evolving contours of global security—from Europe to Indo-pacific.
